Solemn Promises:

Do you promise (before God and witnesses) to raise (child's name) in the fear of God?

Do you promise to do whatever you can to guide (child's name) to a personal, saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ?

Do you promise to strive towards a home where Christian values and principles are lovingly cultivated in (child's name)?

Do you promise to allow (child's name) the freedom to freely express the full range of human feelings, including anger, exuberant joy, fear, sadness, and discomfort?

Do you promise to meet (child's name) age-appropriate biological, emotional, and intellectual needs, as felt, and experienced by (child's name) and not per parental need or schedule?

Do you understand that this Dedication and Promises will only bear limited fruit if you as caregivers and role models are not in an active relationship with your local community of faith (church)?
